To whom it may concern,

My company is addressing this letter in reference to professional services conducted and provided for by Miss M. Vincenti during my recent visit to Cannes, France.

My impressions of Miss Vincent's assistant and her professional advice were of a very high standard, which provided me with the following information:-

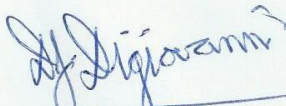

- Research for temporary accommodation,
- Assistance to discovering area facilities,
- Advice on the selection of good value area for property investment,
- Assistance with estate agencies and lawyers,
- Assistance with bank formalities etc, and information about taxes on properties.

Therefore I highly recommend and regard Miss Vincenti's services to anyone requiring assistance and advice on the matters above. I found her to be honest and very reliable, a valuable asset to this service.

My purpose for consulting with Miss Vincenti on this matter, was in preparation for relocating and permanently living in Cannes, France. I would like to establish my company there and will be requiring Miss Vincenti's assistance in the near future.

Should you require additional information on this matter, please feel free to contact me on the above address.

Yours sincerely,

John Digiovanni
